

CNC Sliding head Machinist

Yorkshire Precision Engineering Ltd are a successful busy Sub Contract Engineering Company working in a variety of industries from Medical to Oil & Gas to Brewing and Space and are looking for an experienced CNC Turner to work on Star Sliding Head Machines Setting & Operating, offering excellent rates of pay to the right candidate.

Job Description

- Setting and Operating CNC Star Sliding Head Lathes
- Working to tight tolerances
- Producing high precision batch work components anywhere from 50 off to 1000s off.
- Setting and Operating using Fanuc Controls
- Producing parts from various general engineering and exotic materials
- Operating and setting on New and up to date machinery

Skills Required

- Setting and Operating CNC Fixed or Sliding head Lathes experience
- (The ability to program is advantageous but not essential)
- Previous experience working within a high precision manufacturing environment.
- The ability to read and Interpret engineering drawings
- Able to Inspect machined components using various inspection equipment
- Must be Self-motivated, dedicated and able to work under own initiative.
- Training will be provided

264 hours holiday per year

Every 3 years' service 10 hours holiday added.

4 Day Week

Working 40 hours per week Monday-Thursday 7:00am to 5:30pm noon

Yearly Appraisals

Access to Bright exchange for discount codes on big name brands

Onsite Parking

Pay is Monthly

Wage dependant on skill level